

New Jersey & Virginia Statewide Surveys

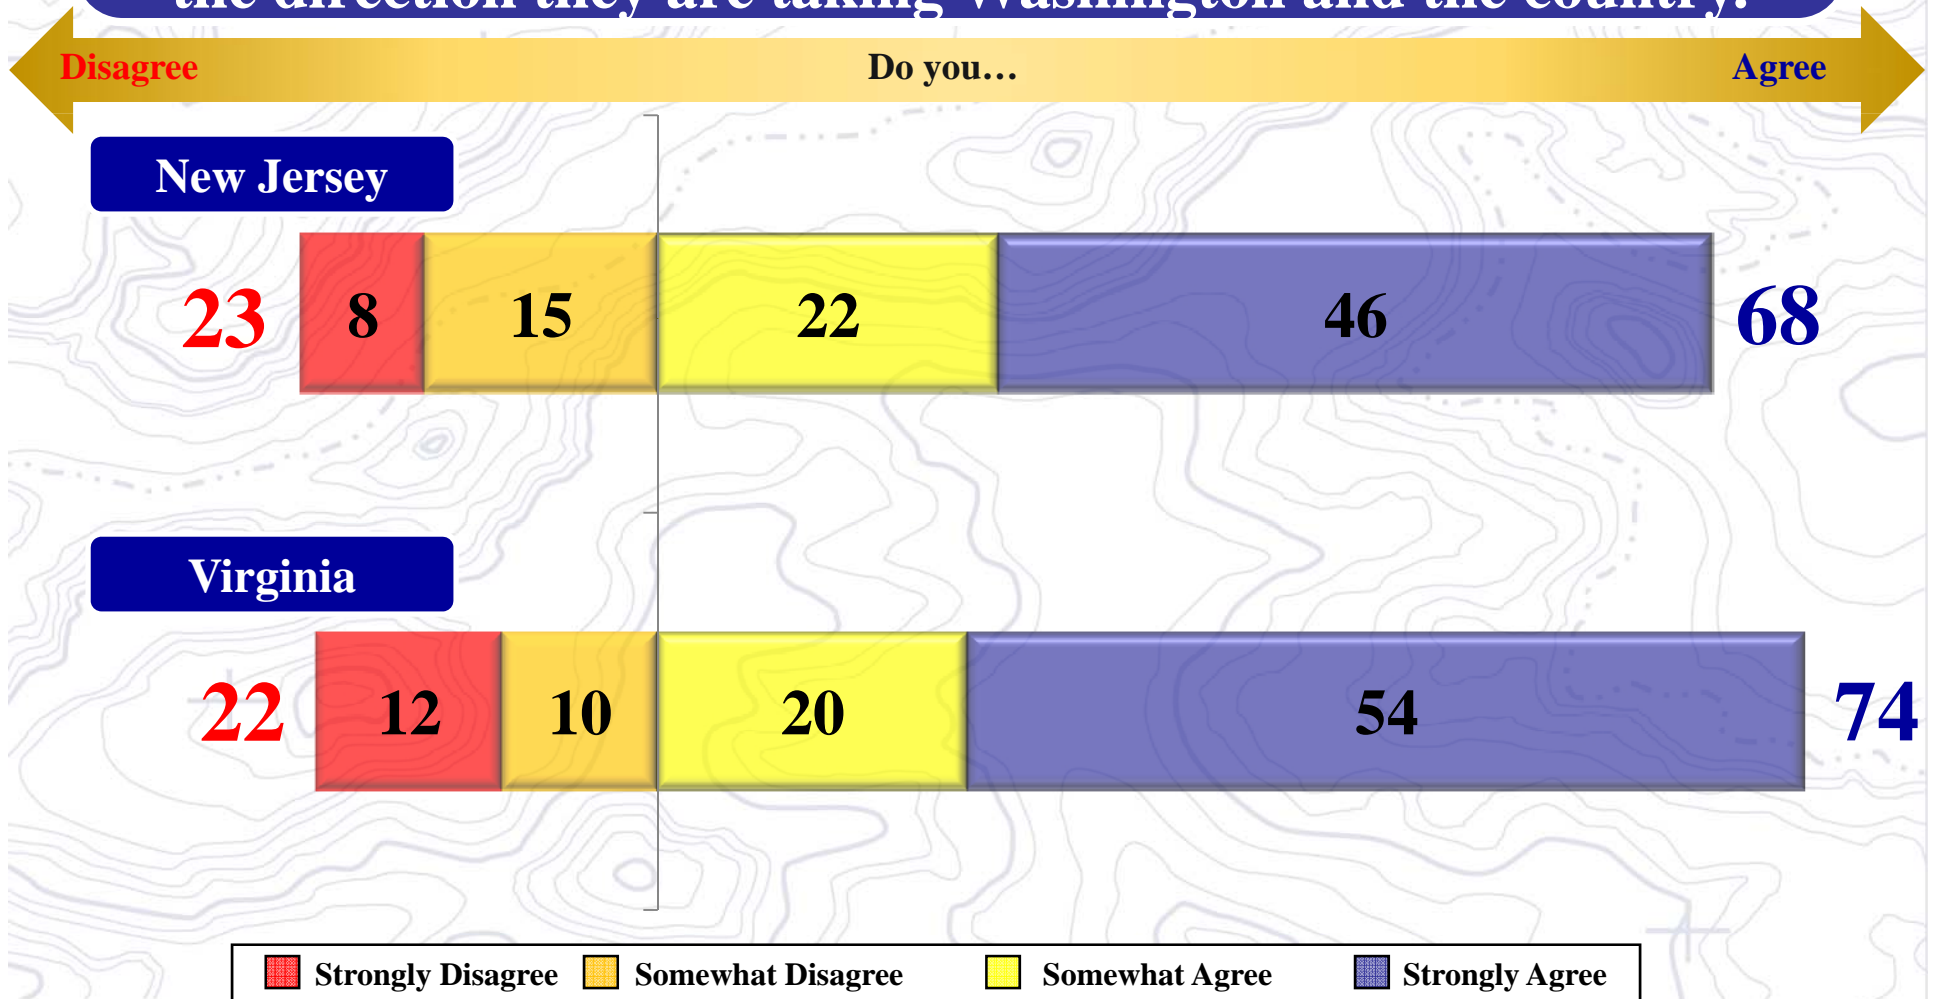

Republican National Committee

Methodology

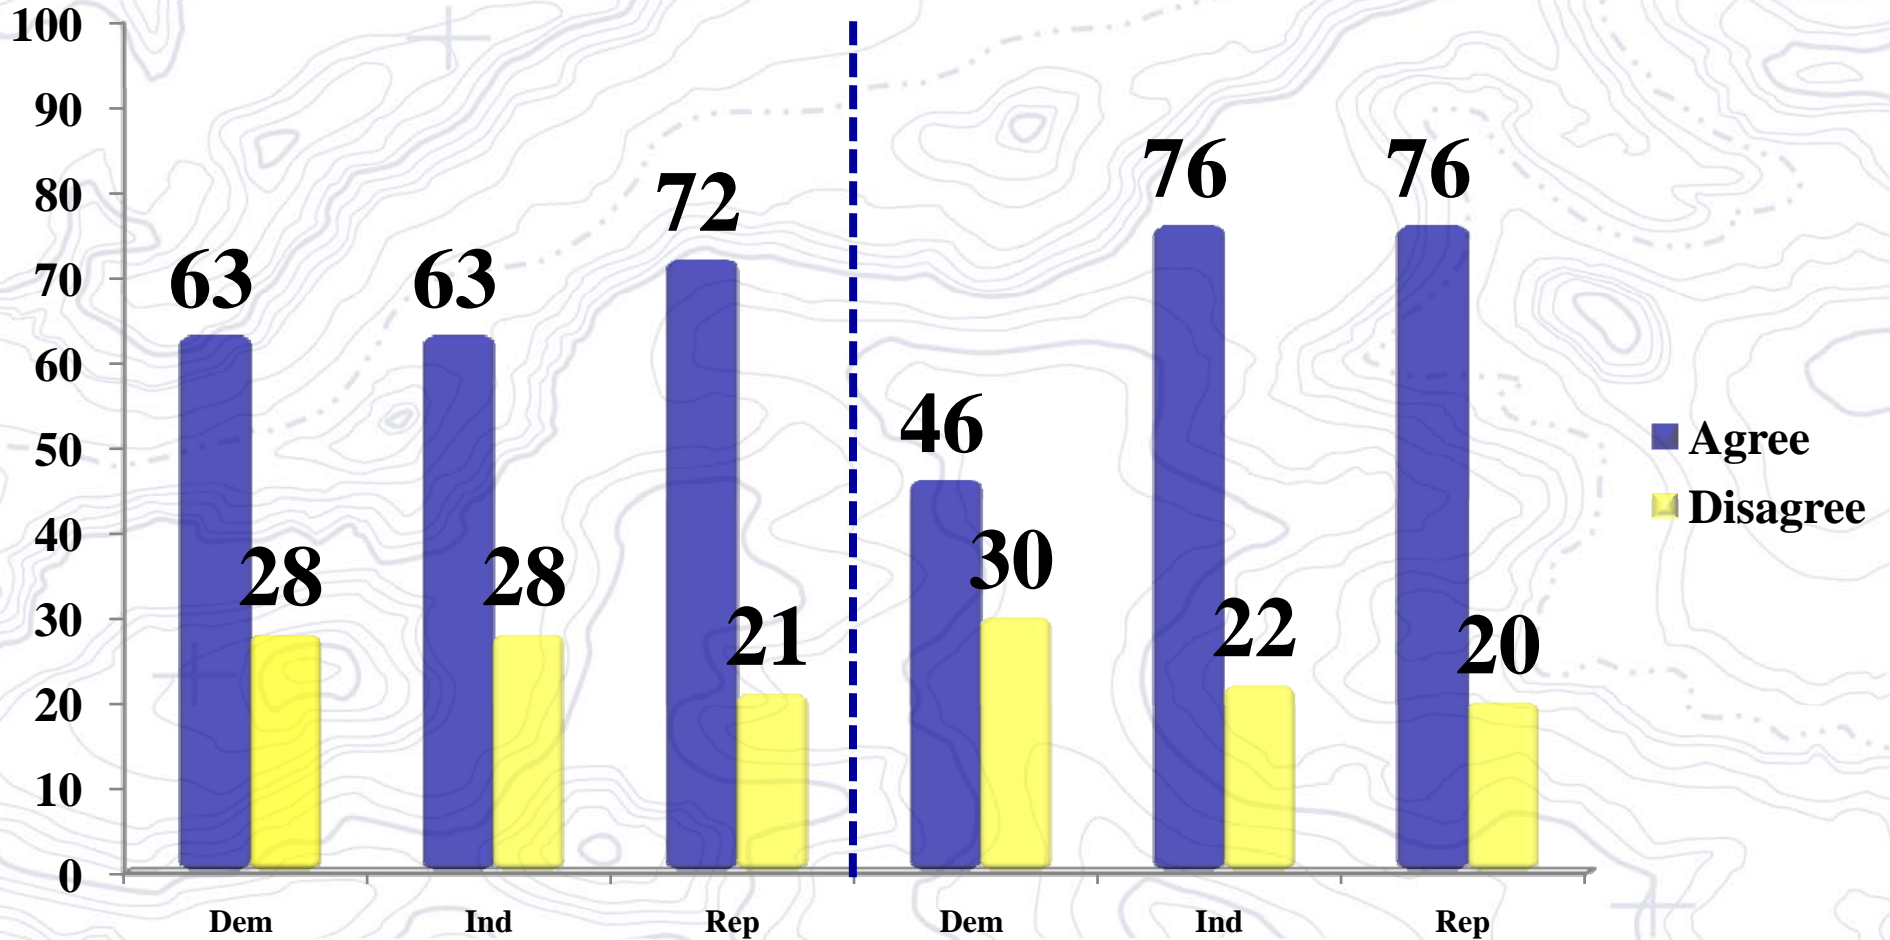

The following question was asked of Christie and McDonnell voters in post election surveys conducted statewide in New Jersey and Virginia – November 3-4, 2009 for the Republican National Committee. Each survey consisted of 800 voters who voted in Tuesday's election for governor.

Do you agree or disagree with the following statement: One of the reasons I voted for (Christie/McDonnell) is to send a message to the Obama administration that I am unhappy with the direction they are taking Washington and the country.
